

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

TODAY'S ELECTIONS IN THE VARIOUS WARDS.

Only Two Will Witness Contests That Promise Any Excitement. Sons of Temperance Entertainment—Weekly School Deposits. Ladies' Auxiliary Country Dance. St. Brendan's Council Will Visit the Fair—Brownies' Instructor Arrives—Other News Notes.

Aside from the Fifth and Fifteenth wards but little interest attaches to the election contests in the various West Scranton wards today. It is, nevertheless, necessary to get out the full vote to carry the viaduct and sewer projects, which are of vital importance to the residents of this part of the city. Every vote against the West Lackawanna avenue proposition means a vote for no viaduct at all, as there is no other plan to be voted on. A vote for the sewers means a step towards a long standing necessity, and for something which must come sooner or later.

The Republican candidates for school controller and common council in the Fourth ward have no opposition, and Messrs. Eymon and Griffin will be elected by a substantial vote. The former is a new aspirant for political honors, while the latter has already served one term in the lower branch. A bitter fight is on in the Fifth ward for the office of select council between Richard H. Williams, the present incumbent, and George B. Carson, ex-school controller, who is running as an independent candidate to succeed Mr. Williams. At the caucus the vote was close, but it is expected that the party followers will stand by the regular nominee.

A contest is being waged in the Sixth ward for school controller between Patrick Golden and Patrick McLean, Democrats, and Evan G. Jones, Republican. The former is an old war horse in politics. The candidate for common council, P. F. Caplin, is unopposed and will be returned by his constituents.

In the Fourteenth ward the Republicans have candidates in the field for common council and school controller to oppose Messrs. Wenzel and Jennings, the present Democratic incumbents. The Fifteenth ward contest is lively and the battle of the ballots will be waged in dead earnest by the adherents of Joseph Oliver, the Republican nominee for select council, and H. T. Fellows, the present incumbent, who wants to be returned. A bitter fight has been on between the candidates for several months and every inch of ground will be fought to the close of the polls.

School Controller Langan and Common Councilman Morris, of the Eighteenth ward, will have no opposition. A lively battle is on in the Twenty-first ward for select council between J. J. McAndrew, the present incumbent, and John L. Payne, the Republican nominee.

Major Eugene D. Fellows, who is one of the candidates for school controller on the board of six, is a resident of West Scranton and will receive merited recognition at every polling place. He is as popular as he is unassuming and the right man for the right place.

Y. M. I. AT THE FAIR.

This will be Young Men's Institute night at St. Patrick's fair, and all indications point to a big success. The members of St. Brendan council are hustling with a vim that predicts an unusually large attendance on this occasion, and the fact that they will be accompanied by Lawrence orchestra is an assurance in itself that a most enjoyable evening is in store for all who attend.

Prizes will be awarded for the most accurate figuring and spelling, which contest is limited to children under fourteen years of age. The heaviest lady present will receive a prize, as well as the tallest man, and numerous other awards of a similar nature will be made.

More valuable prizes will consist of subscriptions to The Tribune, Truth, Times and Republican; two scholarships at Scranton Business college, one at Spencer's Business college and one at St. Thomas college, as well as orders on Photographers Grambo, Frey and Hummer for one dozen best finish photos.

The following deposits were made by the teachers of public schools No. 13, 19 and 32 at the West Side bank yesterday:

Mrs. Ferber, 78 cents; Miss Peck, 56 cents; total, $13.94.

No. 32—H. L. Morgan, 65 cents; Miss Knapp, $2.14; Miss Vaughan, 26 cents; Miss Carpenter, 81 cents; Miss Mullen, $1.50; Miss Ruddy, 46; Miss Fellows, 25 cents; Miss Freeman, 58 cents; total, $7.16.

FEVER AND HEART FAILURE.

Two more children died yesterday from prevalent ailments. One was Hattie, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Blume, of 23 North Main avenue, who succumbed to scarlet fever. The remains will be privately interred in the Dunmore cemetery at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The other death occurred in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Davis, who reside next door to the Welsh Baptist church on South Main avenue. Both their 8-year-old daughter, had been a sufferer for some time and had apparently recovered when heart

LADIES' COUNTRY DANCE.

The country dance held in Mearns hall last evening under the auspices of the Ladies' auxiliary to Division No. 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, was a monster success both socially and financially. At times the hall was so crowded that the dancers moved with much difficulty.

Many of the participants were made up for the occasion, and caused much merriment by their antics. Madden's orchestra played country airs and the usual refreshments served at a country dance were in evidence. The diversions from the regular programme were a pumpkin walk and other side steps. The committee of arrangements comprised Mrs. Moran, Mrs. McHugh, Mrs. M. E. Moran, Mrs. P. J. Moran, Misses Ridd, Gavin, Allen, Slatery, Lam's, McIntyre, Healy, Griffin, Hogan, Sullivan, Healey, Sweeney and Killett.

ENTERTAINMENT THIS EVENING.

An entertainment and social will be held in Mearns' hall this evening under the auspices of Ripple division, No. 45, Sons of Temperance. The following programme will be rendered:

Address.....Chairman James Morf Piano.....Miss Margaret Thomas Vocal solo.....Miss Margaret Thomas Humorous recitation.....Charles Bennett Vocal solo.....John Evans Recitation.....William Taylor Instrumental duet.....Lena Miller Vocal solo.....Miss Ellen Howells Address.....Mrs. Margaret Roberts Piano selection.....Morgan Thomas Vocal solo.....Miss Margaret Thomas Recitation.....Miss Maud Weathergh Vocal solo.....Leyshon Evans Address.....Rev. H. H. Harris, Taylor Recitation.....Miss Helen Jenkins Accompanist, Miss Lydia Hopkins.

Following the entertainment a social will be enjoyed by the members and patrons.

LAYING OF SIDEWALKS.

In view of the ordinance passed by councils directing the street commissioner to compel the owners of property to lay stone sidewalks in front of their premises in the Tenth, Fourteenth and Seventeenth wards, it would not be out of place to include several other wards in the same list.

Particular attention is called to Lincoln avenue, between Jackson and Washington streets, and Exton street, between Twelfth street and the western extremity. In rainy weather pedestrians are compelled to walk in the gutter on each street to avoid the muddy condition of the sidewalk.

FIFTH WARD FIGHT.

Interest in the fight between Richard Williams, the regular Republican nominee, and George B. Carson, independent, is very general. Mr. Williams' friends are emphasizing strongly the fact of his having won the caucus nomination and that they have in the closing days of the campaign made marked progress along this line.

Mr. Williams is a sturdy and deserving Republican and his election would be hailed with pleasure by a large circle of Fifth warders.

INSTRUCTOR ARRIVES.

Miss Bentley, of New York, instructor of the program of the Brownies in Fairland, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and took charge of the seventy-five boys and girls who will give this musical play on Friday and Saturday evenings in Mearns' hall.

On Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee, at which children will be admitted for fifteen cents. Reserved seats are now on sale at Davies' drug store, 106 South Main avenue.

GLASSERS' COLONIAL TEA.

Elaborate preparations have been made by the Glassers of the Simpson Methodist church for a colonial tea to be given at the church Thursday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock. Tickets for this supper are only 20 cents. The object is to assist in liquidating the present indebtedness of the church. NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Yesterday Morning's Destructive Fire—Funeral of Richard Franklin—Other News Notes.

A fire which broke out at 2.30 o'clock yesterday morning in the two story frame building on West Market street owned by Walter Christmas and occupied by P. J. Hogan as a jewelry store, done $3,000 damage before it was extinguished. It succeeded in almost suffocating Mr. Hogan himself.

The blaze was discovered by Patrolman Finley Ross, who promptly turned in an alarm from box 74, at the corner of Main avenue and Market street.

The Niagara, Liberty and Excelsior companies soon arrived on the scene and had three streams playing on the flames. In the meantime Mr. Hogan, who was asleep on the second floor, had been aroused by the smoke and before he could reach a window was almost overcome. He was rescued by means of a ladder just as the flames were creeping into the room.

The blaze was caused by an overheated stove in the rear of the store and before it was placed under control and done a vast amount of damage. The joint loss of Messrs. Christmas and Hogan is estimated at $5,000, about half of which is covered by insurance.

KICKED BY A MULE.

Gwilym Jones, a driver employed at Storrs' shaft, met with a distressing accident on Saturday. He had occasion to pass a vicious mule, and while doing so he was dealt a severe kick over the heart which rendered him unconscious. Blood gushed from his mouth and for a time his life was despaired of. He was removed to his home on Parker street, where he is now resting easily.

Young Jones is rather unfortunate. About two years ago, while employed at the West Ridge mine, a mule kicked him in the eye, which necessitated the removal of the optic.

FUNERAL OF RICH. FRANKLIN.

The funeral of Richard Franklin took place yesterday afternoon from his late home on Beaumont avenue. At 2.30 o'clock the funeral cortege moved to the Holy Rosary church, where services were conducted by the Rev. J. J. McCarthy. The remains were made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Martin Rafferty, Martin McHugh, John Mallia, Martin Lynch, James McCurran and Martin Jennings. Undertaker O'Donnell had charge of the funeral.

FOR A PIPE-ORGAN.

The young people of the North Main Avenue Christian church have started a movement to purchase a pipe-organ for their church. In the interest of this project they will hold an entertainment next Thursday evening, February 22.

The program will consist of a recitation one and the affair is an assured success, as already nearly enough tickets have been sold to fill the church. A new organ is very much needed and a liberal patronage ought to be extended.

BITS OF NEWS IN NOTES.

The men of the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church will serve an oyster stew supper in the church parlors on Thursday evening from 6 to 9 o'clock.

The ladies of the Providence Presbyterian church will serve supper on the evening of Washington's birthday.
